

Just as you believe you have the right to solicit residence, I have the right to not be solicited. If the public has a need for products and/or services, they know how to get in touch with those people/businesses that can provide them. I support the Telephone Consumer Protection Act Docket - 02-278